held at Superior

In partnership with Ashtabula Area City Schools, After School Discovery is coordinating Strive 4 Success (S4S), an academic coaching program held after school at NO CHARGE to the families.

After School Discovery's Strive 4 Success is:

- Held at Superior Intermediate School immediately after school for 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th graders.
- Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 3:45 - 6:30 pm.
- All students will have 2 hours of academics each week.
- 3rd graders will have an hour of keyboarding and an hour of another Enrichment each week.
- 4th , 5th & 6th graders will have two hours of enrichment each week.
- Children will be dismissed from their school day to Strive 4 Success staff and given a snack. Erie students will transition over to Superior.
- Dismissed at 6:30 pm to parents or transportation bus home.
- Fall session: October 3rd to December 6th
- Winter/Spring session: February 6th to April 24th
- Transportation home available through Sunset Transportation at no cost to families
- Homework Help time will be incorporated into their academic coaching times.
- NO charge to families for these extended learning opportunities.
- Registration packets are available from the school office, the ASD Business Office or on our website www.afterschooldiscovery.com to fill in or print off
- Please Return the completed application to the school or the ASD office at 70 Ross Road, Ashtabula.

After School Discovery is separate from Ashtabula Area City Schools and requires your child's completed application form to participate.

An ASD representative will notify you when your child may begin attending.
